INAUGURAL PLANS LAID; HARDING TO BE SWORN IN SHORTLY AFTER NOON

LEGISLATIVE JAM BLOCKS ADVANCE IN U. S. CONGRESS

Navy Appropriation Bill Is "Dead" In Present Session.

Washington, March 3.—The final day of the sixty-sixth congress finds it an unusual legislative jam.

The navy appropriation bill is "dead" so far as the present session of congress is concerned, Senator Poindestex, Republican of Washington, member of the senate naval affairs committee in charge of the measure, admitted in the senate today.

In view of the dilatory tactics pursued by the bill's opponents and the opposition it had encountered, Poindestex declared it would be "useless to further attempt to disguise the fact that there is no chance of the bill being enacted at this session."

"There is no use of continuing the mummery we have been engaged in," Poindestex added. "We might as well recognize the situation confronting us."

Besides the navy appropriation bill there are two other supply bills for the coming fiscal year which are today unpassed and threaten to be left for the next congress despite the desire of President-elect Harding that all appropriation bills be passed before he takes office. The army appropriation bill and the sundry civil appropriation bill are the subject of controversy in the house. An agreement on the army bill is probable. The sundry civil bill is hung upon the controversial hook of Muscle Shoals. The senate insists upon a $10,000,000 appropriation for this nitrate plant and the house is persistent in its opposition to such an appropriation.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF SINN FEINERS IS FOUND SLAIN

Dublin, March 3.—Another victim of the Sinn Fein's relentless warfare against "spies" was found near Curragh Clough today. He was a farmer who had been taken from his home by a band of armed masked men and shot to death.

Upon his breast was pinned the following note: "A convicted spy. Informers beware."

An unidentified man, aged about 70 was shot to death in the streets at Cork after Curfew hours.

Joar O'Brien, a resident of Charleville, was killed by a bomb while running toward his shop.

SECRETARY OF LABOR GIVEN POSITION

Washington, March 3.—President Wilson appointed Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson a member of the international joint boundary commission. This is the position the president had previously offered his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty.

Washington, March 3.—Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, today declined appointment by the president as a member of the international joint boundary commission. Tumulty stated that work of the commission is most important affecting as it does, the relation between the United States and Great Britain and that because of "professional engagements" he did not feel that he would be able to devote the time to the work that it required.

Another appointment to the post will be made today it was stated.

BROTHERHOODS ISSUE CHALLENGE TO U. S. RAILWAY BOARD

Chicago, March 3.—Sixteen railroad brotherhoods today issued what is in effect a challenge to the United States railway labor board and authorized a strike of employees of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad whose request to put into effect a wage cut was recently declared to be a matter in which the board has no jurisdiction because of the financial condition imposed.

Sanction of the A. B. and A. strike was telegraphed to the road employees early today following an all night conference of the heads of the brotherhoods.

COLD WEATHER IS PROMISED FRIDAY

Washington, March 3.—It is going to be a cold inauguration day the weatherman declares.

A special forecast for the district of Columbia, issued by the weather bureau today says:

"The outlook is for fair and considerably colder weather, with temperature close to freezing and fresh west and north west winds, in Washington, March 4."

town, feels in the president-elect is reflected in a large number of Marion folk on the Harding special. They fill two cars, aside from that occupied by the Hardings themselves, and another special train, leaving Marion today, will take many more to the capital to view the inauguration ceremonies tomorrow.

The present plans for the inauguration ceremonies call for an early start by President-elect Harding. The congressional inaugural committee will call at the new Willard hotel for the president-elect and then will drive to the White House where President Wilson will join the party. Under an escort of cavalry from Fort Meyer and secret service men the party will drive down Pennsylvania avenue to the capitol. There will be no parade and there will be less than half a dozen cars making up the party. President-elect Harding will probably go to the senate cloakrooms, where he will visit with his old colleagues. The president will go to the president's room to sign legislation awaiting his signature.

At 12 o'clock Vice President Coolidge will be sworn in. The president-elect and the president will both take seats on the senate floor while this ceremony is in progress. After the vice president is sworn in and has sworn in the new member of the senate then the procession will start for the capitol steps where the president elect will take the oath of office. Members of the house, the senate, supreme court, and the diplomatic corps will lead this march to the platform on the steps. If possible the president will also go to the open air exercises. The president elect will follow at the end of the line. When he reaches the platform he will be immediately sworn in by Chief Justice White and deliver his inaugural address.

At the close of the address the president will drive back to the White House, where his immediate family will join him at luncheon. Mr. Wilson will drive to his new home where he will hold a reception for his friends.

Thirty workmen will complete the job in one day. It would ordinarily cost $25,000. At noon lunch and a hearty supper will be provided the workmen in the church vestry.

NEVER TOOK RIDE ON RAILROAD TRAIN

Manchester, N. H., March 3.—To have lived to the age of twenty-one years in the city of Manchester and never to have stepped aboard a steam train is the experience of Miss Helen E. Cronin.

This does not mean Miss Cronin has never travelled. She has toured the New England States and visited nearly all points of interest within their boundaries, has visited Canada, made a trip to Providence, R. I., and other places in the eastern United States, but all this journeying was done in her father's big touring car.

Life of German Cabinet Hangs By Slender Thread

Former Vice Chancellor Will Call Inter-Party Meeting
To Discuss New Coalition Government—Seriousness
Of Situation Admitted By Leader.

Berlin, March 3.—The official life of the German cabinet was hanging by a slender thread today as a result of the indemnity developments at London.

"It is impossible at present to say whether Foreign Secretary Simons and the rest of the ministry will resign until the outcome of the indemnity conference is settled, but I am calling an inter party meeting for either this afternoon or tomorrow for the purpose of taking steps to include both socialists and nationalists in a new coalition government," declared former vice-chancellor Eugene Schiffer, chairman of the inter party committee of the reichstag. Dr. Schiffer said that plans were under way to "give the government united support in the present crisis."

Schiffer is one of the "strong men behind the scenes." It was he who piloted Germany to a diplomatic victory on the extradition question and he was the only minister who remained in Berlin and kept his post during the Kapp uprising. He is given credit for saving the Ebert government during the crisis of March 1920.

"The French threats of an invasion of Germany are most serious," continued the minister. "I am convinced that the French are not bluffing. The supreme question is whether England will subscribe to the French plans for destroying Germany. But there is a way open so long as the indemnity conference continues under way. It is small consolation but if the French march into Germany, our destruction means the destruction of the rest of Europe along with us."

RUSSIAN ACQUITTED ON RITUAL MURDER CHARGE IS IN U. S.

Mendel Beiliss, whose arrest and trial at Kiev, Russia, in 1913, on "ritual murder" charges startled the world, has just arrived in New York. Beiliss, who was entertained at a banquet upon his arrival, stated that after his acquittal of the fanatical charge that he had murdered a Christian Russian boy as a matter of Hebrew ritual, he was received like royalty in the various countries of Europe which he visited. He has been living in Palestine for several years and his wife and five children are there now.

Barnesville, O., March 3.—The Kearns Gorsuch Bottle Company plant here was destroyed this morning by fire resulting from an explosion of a glass tank. The loss is estimated at $500,000, with $200,000 insurance.

Bridgeport and Bellaire firemen aided in fighting the blaze. The company, which also has a plant in Zanesville, is controlled by the Hazel Atlas Glass company, Wheeling.

Three hundred persons are made idle.

DEFENSE COUNCIL FOR PANAMA HAS BEEN APPOINTED

Will Take Necessary Military Action To Guard Land.

Balboa, March 3.—A council of national defense has been appointed by President Porras of Panama, to initiate and carry out necessary military action to defend the country against Costa Rica. There is one American member—A. R. Morrell, assistant fiscal agent of the Panama government.

Passengers on a Pacific mail liner arriving here today via Punta Arenas reported that the steamship Isabel and the motor schooner Beneluzque were at Punta Arenas with from 300 to 500 Costa Rican soldiers on board armed with cannon. Both vessels were ready to sail. The passengers also reported anti-American feeling in Costa Rica as a result of the belief that the United States will support Panama in the territorial controversy.

The president elect confirmed the appointment of J. J. Davis of Pennsylvania and Illinois as Secretary of Labor.

"I have wired today to Mr. Davis and asked him to be in Washington and I shall appoint him as secretary of Labor," the president elect said. "Mr. Davis is a very able man. I think it is going to be a very fine appointment and one that will find great favor."

COLORADO TO HAVE HIGHEST BRIDGE IN WORLD IS BELIEF

Boulder, Col.—Spanning the deep yawning South Boulder canon, the highest bridge in the world—600 feet in the air—will be built this summer, according to announcement by Charles W. Richards, general manager of the "Kite" route of the Denver and Interurban Railway Company.

More than 600 feet high at 560 feet long, equipped with powerful arc and searchlights, the new bridge will not only afford a wonderful view of awe-inspiring mountain scenery, but will be a gorgeous spectacle in itself, by day and by night.

The span will be a suspension foot and burro bridge, almost twice the height of any bridge constructed, except one across the Zambesi River in South Africa, which is 400 feet high.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON ARMY PAY BILL FINALLY PASSED

Washington, March 3.—The conference report on the army pay bill was passed today by the house. The senate adopted it last night. With the acceptance by the senate and house of conference agreement the bill was sent to President Wilson for approval.

NATION GIVEN UNTIL MONDAY FOR DECISION

Allies Will Invade German
Territory Unless Proposal Modified.

PLANS ARE LAID

England, France and Belgium To Participate
Drive.

London, March 3.—An allied ultimatum was served upon the Germans today that they must present more suitable proposals on indemnity before noon next Monday or allied troops will advance into Germany, it was officially announced by the French delegation to the indemnity conference this afternoon.

If the Germans fail to meet the allied indemnity demands or to tender counter proposals more satisfactory than those presented on Tuesday the allies will put into effect the following compulsory measures:

1—Occupy Duisburg, Ruhrport, and Dusseldorf, in the German coal and industrial belt in western Russia.

2—Each of the allies will put a tax on German exports.

3—A line of customs stations will be established by the allies along the Rhine.

When the indemnity conference opened at St. James palace at noon, Premier Lloyd George immediately gave the allies reply to the German counter proposals of Tuesday: rejecting them. It was understood that Premier Briand of France, and Court Sforza, Italian foreign minister, would follow the British premier outlining the positions taken by France and Italy.

Leaves for Paris.

M. Barthou, the French minister of war, left for Paris during the day, and it was believed that his sudden return was in connection with French military plans.

The crowds about the St. James palace stood silent as four motor cars carrying the German delegates drove up for the meeting. Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, and head of the German delegation was pale and agitated.

When Premier Lloyd George and Marshall Poch arrived the crowd broke into cheers.

The Germans were bluntly informed that the allies do not desire to waste any more time.

The Germans were accused of vexatious evasion of the peace treaty. They were told that they had not paid the money required of them that they had not supplied the coal in quantities specified by the Spa protocol and that they had not brought their war criminals to trial.

Terms Withdrawn.

"In view of the German's disregard of the Paris decision the allies have decided that the extension of time in which the Germans must pay from 30 years to 42 years, will not now operate," the French communique said.

"What you offer is only one quarter of the sum required to repair the damage in the devastated areas alone regardless of other war burdens," Premier Lloyd George told the Germans.

The premier accused Germany of deliberately violating the treaty of Versailles. He denied the German contention that he desires oppression of Germany.

Dr. Simons replied on behalf of the German delegation to the ultimatum delivered by Premier Lloyd George. He was very brief, speaking in a cold voice and using short curt phrases.

The meeting broke up at 2 o'clock. The delegates were grave and solemn as they departed from the palace particularly Premier Lloyd George.

NURSE HELD UP BY MAN SHE AIDED BACK TO HEALTH

Bandit Breaks Down When He Recognizes Intended Victim

Lancaster, March 3.—To nurse back to life on the battlefields, an American soldier, who was desperately wounded at Chateau Thierry and then to meet him at the point of a revolver fell to the lot of Miss Margaret Padden, a Fairfield County Red Cross nurse here.

She was returning alone from a sick call near New Salem, at midnight in her coupe, when she was held up by a bandit. As he threw the light from his flash light in her face he cried, "My God, Miss Padden, you are the first woman I saw after being carried off the battlefield and you nursed me back to life and I owe it to you."

As the nurse talked to him the young bandit broke down and wept as he told her he had been out of work for a long time. That he was hungry and desperate. Miss Padden offered him her purse but he refused and would not tell his name except that he did not live in this part of the state.

As the Red Cross nurse had cared for hundreds of soldiers overseas, she was unable to place the young man.

CALLS MADE ON SICK BY PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The work of the Public Health Department of the Red Cross is still on the increase according to the report made for the month of February by the Public Health Nurse, Miss Helen Evers. Heading the list of miscellaneous duties of the nurse are 98 calls made to homes of the sick, of these 16 being to the homes of school children and 82 of other ages. Fifteen calls were made to other families. Of those visited, four were Home Service persons eight were referred by the Social Service League, and 11 were referred by the Probation officer. Of the eleven referred by the Probation officer, one was crippled, and nine were sick.

The remainder of the report is devoted to investigation of homes, and medical treatment for school children. Two children were referred to the Crippled Childrens home division of the Child's Welfare Department. Among the donations to the Health Service Department of the office were 18 infant garments from the Social Service League and 12 garments turned over by the Red Cross Loan closet to the Home Service Department.

JANITOR PAYS FOR STOLEN SHEETS; CONSCIENCE HURT

Chicago, March 3.—For fourteen years M. E. Henderson Dodd, of Waukegan, Wash., worried over the theft of $10 worth of sheets from the Warren avenue police station here, where he was employed as janitor in 1907.

The sheets were too large, but they were city property and Dodd had taken them.

Today a postal money order for $10 reached Chief of Police Mitzmorris. Dodd sent it to "Desk Sergeant Goodman" at the Warren avenue station. Goodman left the force twelve years ago and has been dead several years.

"I am sending this order for this sum, as my Lord says you must restore what you have taken to be forgiven," Dodd wrote.

"If he is square with the Lord he is square with the department," said Chief Mitzmorris. "We will consider the debt paid."

RUINED FINANCIALLY, MAN TAKES LIFE

INFLUX INTO CAPITAL FOR INAUGURATION ON

Washington, March 3.—The influx of visitors to Washington to attend the inauguration Friday has started. Despite the abandonment of plans for an elaborate ceremony hundreds of people have arrived, and today the number is expected to run into the thousands with other thousands to arrive Friday morning.

The special forecast of cold and and probably fair weather for inauguration day which went out from the weather bureau may result in materially increasing the out of town crowd as some folks who have wished to come have probably hesitated because of memories of bad weather at some previous inaugurations.

Requests unanimous consent to vote

Washington, March 3.—Unanimous consent to vote on the naval appropriation bill at 4 o'clock this afternoon was requested in the senate today by Senator Poindestex, Republican of Washington.

NEW BOOK DESIGNED TO SAVE THOUSANDS IN INVENTORS RECORDS

A book designed to save thousands of dollars to manufacturers engineers and inventors has been placed on the market by Harry Aubrey Toulmin, Jr., of Dayton. The book entitled "How To Keep Invention Records" (D. Appleton & Co., New York and London) is heartily recommended to those contemplating entering the field of industrial property by James T. Newton, former United States Commissioner of Patents, who has been in that office for 40 years. Mr. Newton says:

"The prevention of litigation is the primary object of the conscientious lawyer, but in the field of industrial property, litigation cannot always be avoided. The author of this book has clearly stated the nature of industrial property and formulated a system, founded on the situation as interpreted in numerous court decisions, accurately to determine the first user of an invention, and if his instructions are followed, justice with the minimum litigation will result."

Mr. Toulmin is a graduate of Ohio State University Law School, member of the firm of Toulmin & Toulmin, patent attorneys, member of the bar of the supreme court of the United States and the bar of Ohio, and foreign member of the chartered institute of patent agents of Great Britain.

The book is an exhaustive work on the subject which the author has undertaken. It explains clearly monopolies granted by governments various kinds of patents, trade marks, copyrights, validity of patents in infringements etc., and its study by every business firm would prove advantageous.

SHOULD PASTOR'S SON LEARN TO DANCE?

Chicago.—Should a pastor's son attend dancing school?

This question is seriously agitating the members of the Berwyn Baptist Church, where the Rev. H. P. Waring is sending his thirteen-year-old son, Henry, to dancing school where he is learning the toddle, cat step and other late ones. Henry says he likes it.

But some members of the congregation, it is reported, do not. A minister's son should be kept from earthly things, they declare.

Other members, however, friends of Pastor Waring, ask why shouldn't Henry be allowed to dance and admit dancing themselves.

SIT DOWN A MINUTE AND THINK

Size Up Your Condition. Look at the Facts Squarely

IT PAYS TO HAVE GOOD HEALTH

Most illnesses Are Prevented by a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood Take Pepto-Mangan, the Red Blood Builder

Either you are in good health or you are not. There's no half way. You may think nothing of being a little run down. It may not worry you if you look pale. You may think you'll be all right tomorrow or next day. But will you?

Certain it is when you do not feel just right you are not right. There is probably something the matter with your blood. And while you can get around and do your work you are leaving yourself open to any of the diseases that are always waiting to take possession of run down people.

When you are pale and easily tired, when you cannot enjoy your meals, when you lose enthusiasm, your blood needs attention.

Take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great tonic. It will build up your resistance to disease, and you will soon feel stronger. The little red corpuscles are fighters. They battle with disease germs and win out when there are enough of them. Keep your system well supplied. Then you will keep well and you will enjoy life.

But be certain you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by the full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Some people take it in tablet form. It is so convenient. The liquid and the tablets have the same medicinal value. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package. adv

ARE ENTERTAINED AT THIMBLE PARTY

Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the guests. POVERTY SOCIAL IS NOVEL FEATURE

Guests at the "poverty social" conducted by the young people of the Second United Presbyterian Church in the basement of the church Tuesday evening, appeared in rags and tatters.

Collars at this novel social function were not permissible and there was no jewelry worn by those who participated in the jolly affair. The costumes were all in keeping with the name of the affair, and "poverty" had its inning. The affair was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the young people of the church, the guests entering readily into the spirit of the original plan.

The basement of the church was decorated for the social and groups of the guests performed stunts. Refreshments of mush and milk and apples were served, and taffy was served following a taffy pull which concluded the evening's entertainment.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Dodds and family returned Wednesday evening from a visit of several days in Belmont county.

The meeting opened at nine o'clock in the morning, and at noon a delicious "covered dish" luncheon was served. The afternoon was spent by the guests in making garments for the Social Service League. About thirty members of the church were present at the all day meeting.

HEAR REPORTS OF COMMITTEES WHEN ASSOCIATION MEETS

The reports of the chairman of recently appointed committees were received at the meeting of the executive committee of the Greene County Fish and Game Protective Association held in the office of Magistrate J. E. Jones Tuesday evening.

The chairman of the committee to secure a permanent game warden for Greene County was instructed at the meeting to take steps to attempt to secure one of the seven new game protectors, just allowed to Chief A. C. Baxter, of the State Fish and Game Department.

The chairman of the committee to secure prizes for the annual fishing contest, announced that local merchants had already contributed a considerable amount of merchandise to be used for this purpose. The chairman of the committee on a fish hatchery for Greene County reported that a strenuous effort would be made to secure one for this county, provided sufficient funds are made available through the passage of the fifty cent angler's license law.

The passage of the angler's license law, it is pointed out will increase the production of fish, provide more fish hatcheries, clear the stream and provide better fishing. Its passage is urged, not from the standpoint of making the angler pay a license fee, but because such fees would provide funds to improve and create better fishing facilities.

KIDNEYS AILING? Watch the Symptoms

Don't take any chances with your kidneys. If you have the faintest suspicion that your kidneys are weak or your bladder is irritated the wisest thing you can do is to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot at once.

Watch the symptoms carefully. The tiniest signals often indicate that the kidneys are ailing and need attention. Dry skin for instance and little specks floating before the eyes. Sometimes the feet feel heavy, as if your shoes were full of lead. Often the joints ache or you have quick, darting pains shooting through the back or side. Then again that frequent desire to empty the bladder, cold, clammy feet and just a little puffiness under the eyes. Occasionally the hands or feet swell slightly and the palms of the hands are moist. Don't neglect them—you cannot afford to take any chances with your kidneys.

IMPORTANT—Dr. Daniel G. Carey, the well known kidney and bladder specialist of Elmira, N. Y., who retired recently, declared that this great prescription, No. 777, "Marshroot," had helped thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. It is not a patent medicine and is only sold through drug stores to accommodate his patients. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription at Sayre & Hemphill's and all reliable pharmacists the country over. Keep in mind the name Dr. Carey's Marshroot prescription No. 777. No other medicine can take its place.

SUGAR BOWL WILL CHANGE LOCATION ON GREEN STREET

The room in the Davidson property on Green street just vacated by the Fred P. Graham paint and paper store, which has been moved to its new location on Whiteman street, has been leased by L. F. Clevenger, proprietor of the confectionary store now known as the Sugar Bowl, which business he will move into the new room before the middle of April.

In the meantime workmen have started immediate operations to improve the room for the occupancy of the confectionary. The property consists of a basement, first and second floors, each 20 by 80 feet in dimensions. A new front will be installed in the room, the display windows being arranged in a new vestibule plan that has never before been attempted here. The window base will be marble, and the vestibule tiled.

The candy store will occupy the front part of the down stairs room, with an ice cream parlor in back of that. In the extreme rear and in the upstairs room, Mr. Clevenger will operate his candy and ice cream factory, where he makes all his own confections. The interior fixtures will all be solid oak.

Because of the fact that the name the Sugar Bowl, is copyrighted, the name will be changed when the store is moved to its new location, and Mr. Clevenger is now planning a contest for a new name for his shop.

A SUITABLE TIME TO TAKE "ACCOUNT OF STOCK" OF OUR PATRIOTISM.

One of the ablest statesmen of modern times, Gladstone, said that the proper function of a government is to make it easy for the people to do good, and difficult for them to do evil; and when you come to think of the matter, and analyze the kind of government that would be your preference to live under, how could you improve on this definition?

And, as we today stand at one of the mile-stones of our blessed government, is it not a good time for us all to refresh our minds about the beautiful edifice under which we live and have our being; under which we enjoy so many wonderful blessings?

What a wonderful thing it is that takes place at Washington City on Friday of this week. Silent almost as the passing of the day itself, we pass from the administration of the policies of one party to that of another; pass away one world's greatest Ruler to give place to another to take his most exalted position; over turn in a thousand respects the personnel conditions of our governmental affairs. And yet all will be accomplished as silently and systematically and unostentatiously as if but one of our churches changing pastors.

Love of country is one of the loftiest of virtues; and at such a mile-stone as this would be a very suitable time to impress the youth with Patriotism—to call attention to the heroic struggle that gave to us our beloved country, to the end that we may not think too lightly of it, as though it had come by accident instead of heroism.

One wise man uttered this patriotic sentiment: "After what I owe to God, nothing should be more dear or more sacred than the love and respect I owe to my country."

MUTUAL DISARMAMENT WOULD SAVE ENOUGH TO OFF-SET MUTUAL CANCELLATION OF WAR DEBTS.

By disarmament no one means literal disarmament, but only the limiting of armaments. Our appropriations for the army and navy for 1920 were $1,499,000,000, while as recently as 1917 they were but $598,000,000. Nearly a billion could be knocked off the appropriation without getting below the plane of 1917, which would be quite worth while. Not all the European nations could reduce at once; France could not do so before the German menace to her safety was eliminated. There is hope that this will be accomplished before long. Japan would have to be included in any agreement before we could reduce our expenditures much. However, it is supposed that these points can be adjusted; it would be worth while trying. At present all want to disarm, but no one is willing to take the first step in doing so.

As to the mutual cancellation of debts, about $10,000,000,000 is owing to us from the Allies, of which Great Britain's share is some $4,335,000,000. It is understood that she has proposed a cancellation scheme, which was rather a generous thing to do, since there is due to her from the Allies $8,655,000,000, and she would therefore be forgiving double the amount that she would be forgiven. It seems that we should be no less generous than Great Britain, for it cannot be denied that the Allies were fighting our battles nor that we failed miserably in our duty by not taking our stand with them at the beginning of the war.

The effect of an agreement to disarm mutually and forgive, supposing it possible, would be immediately beneficial in a high degree. The saving in military costs alone would make the concession a good business proposition for us. We should have to continue for a time to pay taxes to provide for the interest on bonds issued on account of the loans we made, but we should be enabled to retire those bonds rapidly. European finances would be stabilized, exchanges would become normal and work and trading be resumed.

Would it not be worth while to try to buy the consent of the nations to disarmament in this way?

THE USUAL LUCK.

In Kansas, where I lived for years, the winters were a fright; the north wind came and froze my ears when in my bed at night. The snow was always ankle deep, and filled my heart with pain, and murky heavens used to weep twelve kinds of chilling rain. And so I said, "I'll seek a clime where winter isn't known, where there is neither snow nor rime, and blizzards do not groan." And so I pitched my moving tent upon a sunny shore, where weather prophets don't lament, and groundhogs weep no more. And then the Kansas climate braced, and sprung a great reform; no blizzards o'er her prairies chased, the air was mild and warm. "The sweetest winter ever seen," my correspondents say; "the skies are blue, the grass is green, the jazzbirds sing all day." And on the seashore where I sit, the shore by long waves lashed, the old inhabitants admit that records have been smashed. "The coldest winter we have seen," these ancient men remark, "since we came o'er the billows green in Noah's costly ark." And should I back to Kansas go, where all the prospects please, the clouds would dump six feet of snow and I would promptly freeze. Alas, this is the sort of thing that always has been mine, and yet I'm happy as a king, so many things are fine.

MARINE IS HAPPY WITH GERMAN BRIDE

Chicago, March 3.—If the Marines want anything they usually get it. Hindenburg's warriors learned at Chateau-Thierry. And the state Department has learned the same thing.

Former First Lieutenant James Frank Smith, of the Second Division, A. E. F., is back in Chicago and with him his German bride of a few days, formerly Miss Emma Rosa Forstmayr. They were married February 9 in New York after Smith had induced Major-General John A. LeJeune to intercede with Secretary Colby to the extent of having the State Department permit Miss Forstmayr to come to America to be married.

"If you love me, James, this bracelet will never become loose from your wrist. Goodbye and good luck," she said.

After the wedding ceremony Lieutenant Smith held out his left wrist to his bride and she solemnly unclasped the bracelet and they kissed as a token of their sincerity.

Smith went over to France and later to the bridgeheads of the Rhine in Germany as a sergeant. He was decorated with the French fourragere and given a single silver bar on his shoulders.

He was soon made a fleet supply officer and had charge of one of the vessels on the Rhine. In this work he met Miss Forstmayr. It was a case of love at first sight for them both. Because of the order against fraternizing with German girls Smith was forbidden to marry her and take her back to the states.

Disheartened, Smith left Germany. He told her he would return for her. This she refused because of the expense of the trip," she explained.

Meantime, Smith implored his commanding officer, Major General LeJeune, to intercede with the State Department. LeJeune talked it over with Bainbridge Colby. Colby finally acceded to the request to permit Smith's sweetheart to leave Germany, even though we were technically "at war with Germany." Miss Forstmayr set sail aboard the Lapland from Antwerp.

A traveler's aid representative met Miss Forstmayr at the pier and took her to Smith, then to the church.

ADVISE TAXPAYERS NOT TO DELAY INCOME RETURNS

The following statement is issued by the internal revenue office:

"With the approach of March 15 taxpayers are advised not to delay in the preparation and filing of their income tax returns for the year 1920. To avoid penalties, the returns must be in the hands of a collector or a deputy collector of internal revenue on or before midnight of that date.

On page 1 of the income tax forms is the following: If you need assistance go to a deputy collector or to the collector's office, but first read instructions and fill out sheet (face and back) in pencil as well as you can! Much time can be saved both the government officers and the taxpayers if before seeking aid, the taxpayer will follow this injunction. For example, blank spaces are provided for answers to the following questions: "Are you a citizen of the United States?" "If not are you a resident of the United States?" "Did you file a return for 1919?" "If so what address was given on that return?" "Were you married and living with wife and husband on the last day of your taxable period?" "How many dependent persons under 18 (or if over 18) incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective) were receiving their chief support from you on the last day of your taxable period?"

Such questions as these should not await inquiry from revenue officers assisting in making out the forms.

Returns are required of every married couple whose net income and that of dependent children for the year was $2,000.00 or more and from every single person or married person not living with wife or husband—whose net income was $1,000 or more.

The exemptions are $2,000 for married persons and heads of families and $1,000 for single persons—or married persons not living with wife or husband—and are determined by the taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year, December 31, 1920. Husband and wife may make a combined return of their joint net income if less than $5,000. If the income of either exceeded $5,000, separate returns should be filed for the purpose of computing correctly the surtax which applies only to income in excess of that amount.

The tax may be paid in full at the time of filling the return, or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, September 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15. Taxpayers are advised not to send cash through the mail.

FIRST CRABBE ACT CASE DISMISSED IN COMMON PLEAS COURT

Dayton, O., March 3.—Holding that sufficient evidence was not introduced in a magistrate's court when dry officials obtained a search warrant to enter the farm of Henry Weng, where stills and mash were found, Judge R. C. Patterson, common pleas court, dismissed the case. This was the first such case in common pleas court. The judge said he based his findings on U. S. Judge Sater's decision on search warrants. He held too, that the original affidavit must be obtained in common pleas court.

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day'. If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTEN, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world.

Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues", she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

"LAST OF THE MOHICANS"
"Never has such a picture been booked at the Bijou Theater. was the verdict of Manager Hibbert, of that popular house after he had seen Maurice Tournier's pictureurisdiction of "The Last of the Mohicans," by J. Fenimore Cooper, which starts here Friday.

"There is everything for everybody," he continues "and not a member of the family can miss it, because it pleases the old folks by bringing happy remembrances of other days for the middle aged—the fathers and mothers of today—the appeal is strong because of the personal entertainment element with the value of the picture solely as an amusement. These parents have another interest, that of educating their children, for Cooper's famous book is used in school work, and by seeing the film, the youngsters are doubly impressed, and their interest in literature is stimulated.

"Then for the boys and girls! What kid has not 'played Indian' and enjoyed it? Not a one, indeed. Therefore every lad and lassie of Greene county will have the very time of their lives at the Bijou when this big historical picture is shown.

CENTRAL HI COURT CROWD CONFIDENT ON EVE OF TOURNEY

Coach Harold Confer, and his Central High quintet, full of pep and confidence, left for Delaware, Thursday afternoon at 3:13 o'clock to participate in the Southern Division round of the annual state interscholastic basketball tournament at Ohio Wesleyan University.

"If they keep their heads and don't get excited they will give a good account of themselves in the tournament," said Coach Confer before the team left. "I will try to keep them as cool as possible in order to have them play their best. The excitement and tenseness of play in the tournament often has a tendency to ruin the chances of good teams, and is what has been the trouble with a number of good teams that were sent to the tournament from Central High."

The blue and white team is rated well in Southern Division circles and is looked upon by sport writers as being rated with Steele, Olivers, Athens and Lancaster High School teams, as the pick of the Southern Division teams. The fact that the Central High team represents the pick of the state, is proven by the conditions that have for four straight years given the state championship to Dayton, three times to Stivers, and once to Steele.

A large crowd of rooters accompanied the team to cheer the players on in the games that start Friday.

COUNTY STAR TEAM READY FOR AFFRAY

County basketball stars who have been picked by Coach Harold Confer of Central High School on his all star basketball team to meet Chic Harley's team at the Fink Friday evening have been practicing nightly.

The athletes gather here from Cedarville, Yellow Springs, Alpha and from this city, where they have been drawn because of considerable court ability and in continued practice sessions have developed a team work like veterans. The game is attracting considerable attention from the fans.

METEORS EVEN COUNTY WITH ST. JOSEPHS TEAM

Obtaining retribution for a defeat handed them by St. Joseph's High School team of Springfield a short time ago, St. Brigid's Meteors defeated the Springfield visitors at the Rink Wednesday night 12-7.

The game was closely played, with sides off on their basket shooting, but striving desperately through all stages of the pastime. There was a little scoring evidenced in the pastime as probably any game played on the local court.

FOOTBALL BUGS START PRACTICE

Cedarville, March 3.—Tuesday, March 1, the football bugs of the College had a strenuous workout, for about two hours, passing, kicking the pigskin. McFadden, White, Arthur, Thorn, Collis, J. Kyle, Findlay and Duncan and several other lads showed up fairly well in the handling the leather. Several more practices will be held this spring in order to get a line on material for next fall.

John, Harry and Miss Marjorie Wright have been out of school all week, as they have been at Idaville, Ind., attending the funeral of their grandfather Wright.

The basketball season is almost finished but Coach Collins is not letting up on practice to any extent, as every effort is being made to bring victory to Cedarville in our last two games. On Friday, March 4, a new lineup will appear against Bowling Green. Riddell, the Xenia lad, has shown up so well that he can not be kept on the bench. The Waynesville girls will be here for sure to tackle our peerless sextet the same evening.

With the baseball season fast approaching, Manager Paul Duncan is announcing that he has games scheduled with Wilmington, Antioch, Wilberforce and the Alumni. Prospects for a good team are shattered somewhat by the high standards of

HEARING OF PROTEST AGAINST TELEPHONE RATE INCREASE IS SLATED FOR FRIDAY

Secretary F. J. Slackford of the Chamber of Commerce, Attorney C. L. Darlington, who is representing that organization, City Manager Kenyon Riddle and City Solicitor J. A. Finney will go to Columbus Friday to be present at the hearing of the protest filed by the Chamber of Commerce against the rate increase put in effect here last November by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company which will be heard before the state Utilities Commission at ten o'clock Friday morning.

Secretary Slackford and Mr. Darlington go as representatives of the Chamber of Commerce which is carrying on and financing the fight against the rate increase while City Manager Riddle and Mr. Finney are representing the city, the administration being considerably interested in the outcome of the hearing, although carrying on the fight against it.

The rate increase that brought the situation before the State Utilities Commission was the third in a period of 13 months put in effect by the Company, and became effective last November 1. The first of the three increases was made October 1, 1919, the second May 1, 1920 and the third in November of the same year.

In October 1919, the Company put into effect an increase allowed by the State Utilities Commission, raising one party business phones to $3.50 a month, two party business phones to $4.50, one party residence phones to $2.25, two party residence phones to $2.75 and trunks to $4.00. In May 1920, the rates were increased as follows: one party business phones $4.50, two party business phones $5.50, one party residence phones $2.50, two party residence phones $3.00 and trunks to $6. The last rate, put into effect last November, makes the rates as follows: one party business phones $5, two party business phones grades required by those who participate in athletics. However, our wealth of new material has brought in some first-class pill tossers who are expected to fill up the gaps.

$4.25, one party residence phones $2.75, two party residence phones $2.25 and trunk lines $7.50.

When the increase was announced last fall, the Chamber of Commerce immediately filed a protest with the State Utilities Commission, and retained Attorney C. L. Darlington, a member of its board of directors, as legal advisor of the organization and to represent the Chamber in the hearing. The Commission set the hearing for November 30, but later postponed it three times, until finally the date of March 4 was agreed upon.

At the time of the filing of the protest the State Utilities Commission required the telephone Company to post a bond of $5,500. As the hearing was to be held November 30, after one month's collections at the new rate had been made, this bond was to secure for patrons of the Company, the refund of any excess charges made, should the Commission decide that the increase in rates in part of it was too high. This bond, it is understood, was never raised, but if the Commission finds the rates excessive, it is understood that the Company will be required to credit every subscriber with the amount he has paid in excess in the meantime.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. BRUNSWICK Method of Reproduction

The Ultona, an exclusive all-record reproducer, to be obtained only on The Brunswick. It plays all makes of records at their best. Not an attachment, but a built-in part.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier, made entirely of molded wood, like a fine violin. Gives added richness and fullness to tone. Does away with metallic sounds.

Two exclusive features You can't buy elsewhere

THE reason so many critical music lovers prefer The Brunswick is not hard to find. It is all due to the Brunswick Method of Reproduction, two features of which are pictured above.

Tone is the chief reason for so many friends for Brunswick. And tone depends largely upon the reproducer and the tone amplifier.

In both of these features Brunswick has gone far in advance. The Ultona plays all records, not confining you to one make. And it plays each exactly as intended, with the proper diaphragm, the proper needle. Best of all, it is not a hastily contrived makeshift, but a basic invention.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is built entirely of wood. Not merely the part you see, but the throat between the reproducer and amplifier. The usual way is to make this throat of cast metal, a faulty way that brings metallic sounds.

You'll appreciate how far in advance The Brunswick is; you'll admire its superior tone. The proof of the pudding is—Hearing. All we ask you to do is to investigate The Brunswick with your own ears.

COMPLETE HEARING OF INJUNCTION CASES; DECISION LATER

With the completion of the case of Osha May Shaw, against County Auditor R. O. Wead and County Treasurer J. E. Sutton, enjoining the collection of special assessments levied by the city for street improvements, the hearing of which began before Judge Cleveland of Wilmington, in Common Pleas Court Thursday morning, the entire list of injunction cases against the city will be completed.

Wednesday Judge Cleveland heard the cases in which Francis A. Cline and others, Aniel Powers, William Fiste and Anna L. Little. The case started Thursday morning, when completed will wind up all of the cases, which were begun before Judge Cleveland two weeks ago. In all there were 23 cases.

Judge Cleveland is taking all of the cases under advisement and his decision will be announced later.

The Peoples' Building and Savings Company is plaintiff in an action filed by its attorney, C. W. Whitmer, with Clerk of Courts C. S. Johnson, against J. E. Hering, Daisy M. Hering and the Middle West Tire House Company.

The petition claims that the defendant borrowed $5,000 from the institution, giving a promissory note at six per cent interest secured by a mortgage on certain property located on West Main street. The plaintiff asks for a judgment of $5,000, with interest of six per cent, which until January 1, 1921, would have been $5,211.80. The Middle West Tire House Company is named as defendant, because the petition says it is claimed that that company holds a lien on the West Main street property.

The case of the State of Ohio, ex rel Mary L. Sessler, against Keith Moon, charging bastardy, was entered in Common Pleas Court yesterday, from the court of Magistrate J. E. Jones, from which court the defendant was bound over to the Grand Jury.

Morris D. Rice as guardian of Florence Frahn, an imbecile, filed an appraisal of the property with Judge J. Carl Marshall in Probate Court yesterday, and furnished an additional bond of $5,000. His sale of the property to the Boucher Pieper Company for $3,000 was approved by the court.

INFANT SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA

Phyllis Jane Mitchell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell of Clifton, died at the parents home Wednesday evening, following an illness of two weeks of pneumonia. The child was one year and nine months old. Besides the parents, two sisters and one brother survive. Funeral services will be held Friday at one o'clock at the M. E. Church at Clifton and burial will be made at Clifton cemetery.

DOCTORS DIDN'T HELP HER SICKLY CHILD

Strong and healthy now. Mother says Milks Emulsion saved its life.

"Last May my three-year-old baby was taken very ill, got so bad that we expected her to die at any time. Had four doctors but they did not know what ailed her and finally stopped coming. She had been sick about 5 months when I started giving her Milks Emulsion. I noticed results from the first and by the time she had taken 2 bottles she was absolutely strong and healthy. I am thankful to say Milks Emulsion saved her life."

Mrs. Willis S. Pitts, Nacogdoches, Texas. For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milks Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it, because unlike many emulsions and tonics, it really tastes good.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that of two bottles of Allenburh, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

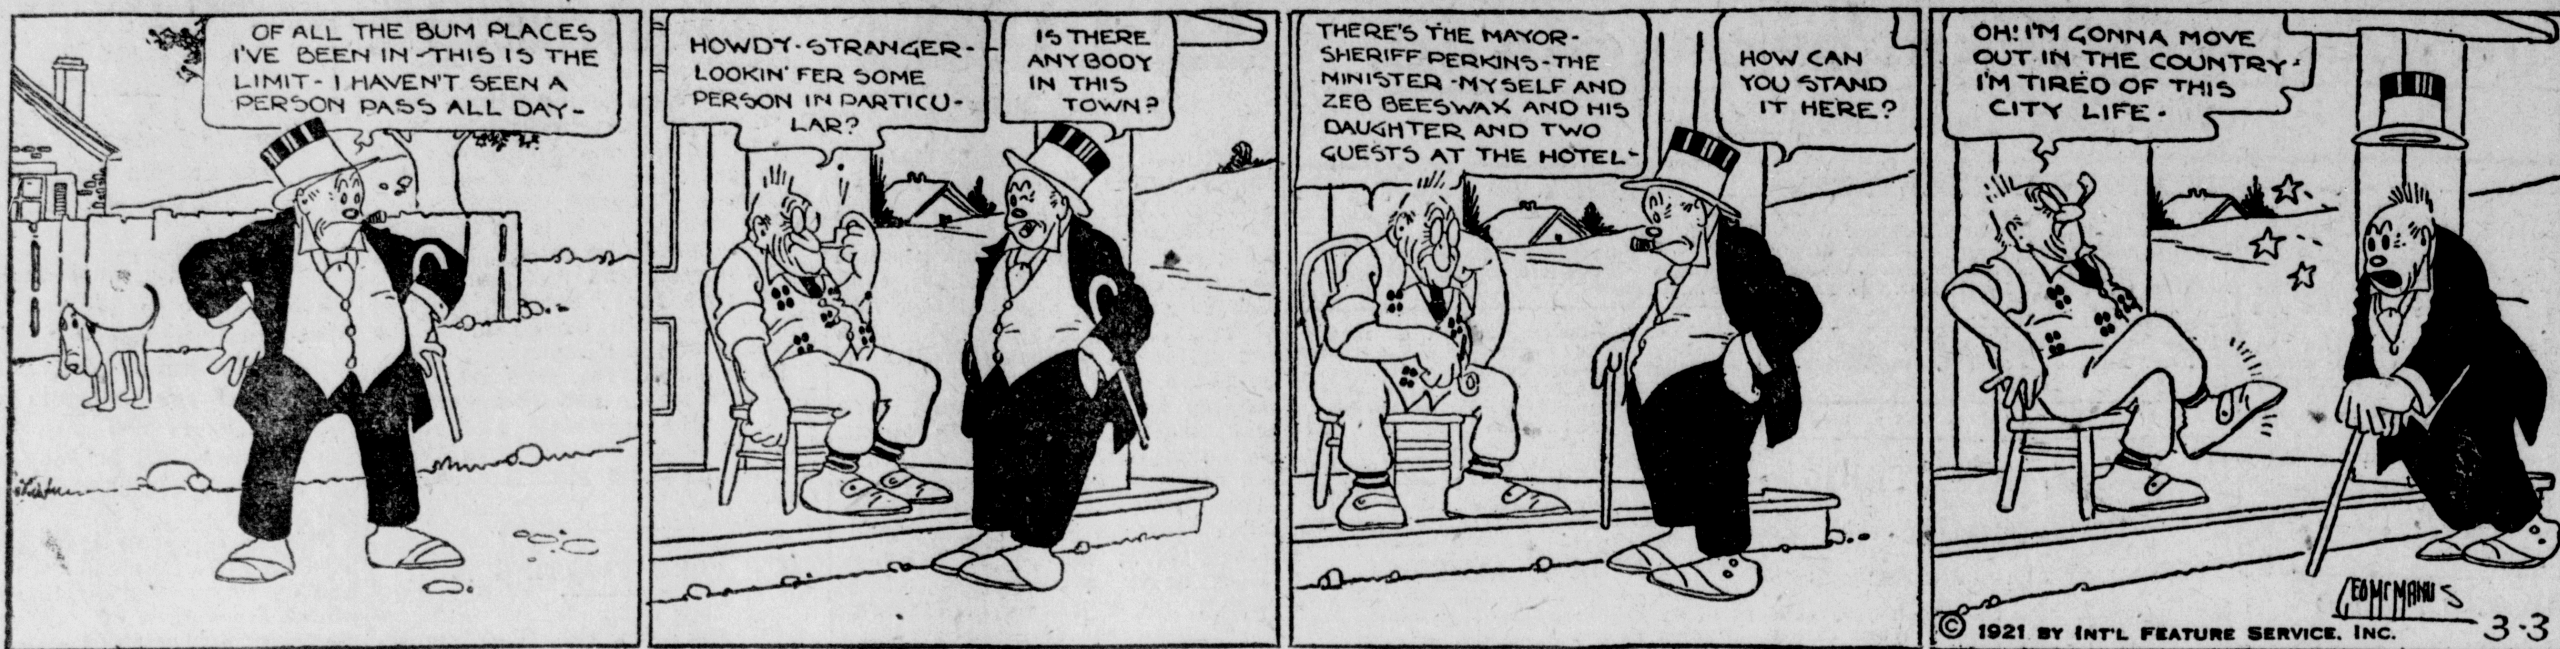

Allenburh has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenburh, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenburh decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed Sayre & Hemphill to guarantee it in every instance.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

NAN PLANS A TRIP

Chapter 105
I had contracted for the decorating of another large house, this time a new one. It was an extremely remunerative job. I had at first refused it, not because of lack of time but because of my depressed condition, my unhappiness in the discovery of Dick's infatuation for Juanita. But when they entreated me to do the work, naming my own price, I consented.

I should make enough to finish our own house and if Dick would consent, put into effect a little plan of which I had been thinking. After I finished this work he and I would go to Los Angeles, surprise Junior, then take a trip to San Francisco. His book would be in the publisher's hands then and the rest and change would do us both good. It would also separate him from Juanita in a perfectly natural way, I reasoned.

When I told Dick I had decided to take the house after all, he only remarked:

"Don't try to do too much, Nan"

it was what he always said.

"I won't," I replied as usual.

Perhaps Dick's seeming indifference to my work even when it really had amounted to something, had hurt me almost as much as anything he could have done except ceasing to love me. At Lansing he had been so interested, asked so many questions, been so solicitous, that his stereotyped questions, his cold indifference now hurt doubly in comparison.

I attributed all of this to Juanita's influence. He was so interested in her that he had no interest in me or anything I did, I thought with bitterness.

The book was finished that week. All those last days Juanita was closeted with him from morning until night, while I attended to my work, most of which had to be done away from home. I was always there at meal time, however, and invariably was obliged to call them to their meals, even after the maid we now kept (and could afford), had announced they were ready.

"They never know whether I am in the house or not," I said to myself after Dick had made some remark which showed an utter failure to remember I had told him I was doing Mr. Baker's new house. And Juanita seemed to forget my very existence, save occasionally when at lunch she would remember I was alive and say:

"You must excuse us, Nan, but we are so interested in our book we can think of nothing else."

How that "us" and "we" and "our" hurt me! But I comforted myself with the thought—the book is almost finished, she will have no excuse to be here then. So I smiled and told them not to mind me, while inwardly I knew that I longed to be minded very much indeed.

Saturday afternoon they went to the postoffice together and sent the manuscript to a prominent New York publisher. I met them as I was going home from a hard afternoon's work. They were laughing and chatting unrestrainedly until I joined them. They had not seen me, until I was almost abreast of them.

Immediately they became quiet, at least Dick did.

"I heard you laughing," I said, "I expect you both feel immensely relieved now that the manuscript is out of the way."

"It may come right back," Dick grumbled.

"Don't even think that after all your work. We won't take it back!" I said lightly.

"Will you come in?" Dick asked Juanita as we neared the house.

"No, I think not." If she was waiting for me to say anything she surely must have been disappointed. I would begin at once to hold myself aloof.

"Then I'll walk home with you. The walk will do me good. I'll be back by the time dinner is ready. Nan."

I went into the house perfectly discouraged. I had hoped for so much when the book was finished. It was finished. But it looked as if there was to be no change in the intimacy it had fostered to such a dangerous degree.

I would sound Dick as to my plan when he returned. I waited until we were drinking our coffee before I unfolded it to him.

"You see, Dick, you have been working terribly hard on your book. This job will give us enough money and we both need a change." Then as he did not answer, I added: "And just think how pleased Junior would be to see us."

"I don't know about going away then, Nan. If Bowman takes my book I may want to take a trip. I have been thinking of for some time. Somers"—A man whom we knew but slightly, but a great friend of Juanita's—"has asked me to go on a yachting trip with him. I haven't given him any answer as yet, but—well, I'll think about it. There's no hurry—you can't go for a month yet anyway I believe you said."

"No, it will take a month longer for me to finish up with the Baker's," I spoke coldly. I had been puzzled, then hurt by the hesitating way in which Dick had received my suggestion for a vacation together and the calm way in which he had left me out of his own plans. But he did not appear to notice, and we spent the evening reading—he a late magazine, I a book upon interior decoration.

Not once did he again mention his book, neither did we talk of anything of interest to us both. We were together, yet as far apart as the poles.

INAUGURAL PLANS LAID; HARDING TO BE SWORN IN SHORTLY AFTER NOON

LEGISLATIVE JAM BLOCKS ADVANCE IN U. S. CONGRESS

Navy Appropriation Bill Is "Dead" In Present Session.

Washington, March 3.—The final day of the sixty-sixth congress finds it an unusual legislative jam.

The navy appropriation bill is "dead" so far as the present session of congress is concerned, Senator Poinexter, Republican of Washington, member of the senate naval affairs committee in charge of the measure, admitted in the senate today.

In view of the dilatory tactics pursued by the bill's opponents and the opposition it had encountered, Poinexter declared it would be "useless to further attempt to disguise the fact that there is no chance of the bill being enacted at this session."

"There is no use of continuing the mummy we have been engaged in," Poinexter added. "We might as well recognize the situation confronting us."

Besides the navy appropriation bill there are two other supply bills for the coming fiscal year which are to-day unpassed and threaten to be left for the next congress despite the desire of President-elect Harding that all appropriation bills be passed before he takes office. The army appropriation bill and the sundry civil appropriation bill are both the subject of controversy in the house. An agreement on the army bill is probable. The sundry civil bill is hung upon the controversial hook of Muscle Shoals. The senate insists upon a $10,000,000 appropriation for this nitrate plant and the house is persistent in its opposition to such an appropriation.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF SINN FEINERS IS FOUND SLAIN

Dublin, March 3.—Another victim of the Sinn Fein's relentless warfare against "spies" was found near Curragh Clough today. He was a farmer who had been taken from his home by a band of armed masked men and shot to death.

Upon his breast was pinned the following note:

"A convicted spy. Informers beware."

An unidentified man, aged about 70 was shot to death in the streets at Cork after Curragh hours.

Zoar O'Brien, a resident of Charleville, was killed by a bomb while running toward his shop.

SECRETARY OF LABOR GIVEN POSITION

Washington, March 3.—President Wilson appointed Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson a member of the international joint boundary commission. This is the position the president had previously offered his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty.

Washington, March 3.—Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, today declined appointment by the president as a member of the international joint boundary commission. Tumulty stated that work of the commission is most important affecting as it does, the relation between the United States and Great Britain and that because of "professional engagements" he did not feel that he would be able to devote the time to the work that it required.

Another appointment to the post will be made today it was stated.

BROTHERHOODS ISSUE CHALLENGE TO U. S. RAILWAY BOARD

Chicago, March 3.—Sixteen railroad brotherhoods today issued what is in effect a challenge to the United States railway labor board and authorized a strike of employees of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad whose request to put into effect a wage cut was recently declared to be a matter in which the board has no jurisdiction because of the financial condition imposed.

Sanction of the A. B. and A. strike was telegraphed to the road employees early today following an all night conference of the heads of the brotherhoods.

COMPULSORY ARMY SERVICE IN MEXICO

Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, March 3.—The military authorities of this zone have been informed that obligatory military service will be enforced in Mexico. This move is said to have the sanction of Generals Obregon, Calles and Estrada.

The age limit will be from eighteen to thirty five years. The standing army will compose about 80,000 men. The officers will be graduates from the Chapultepec Military School in Mexico City.

President-elect Arrives In Washington Thursday Afternoon.

En Route With President-elect Harding, March 3.—His inaugural address completed and in his pocket, and with all the members of his cabinet selected and announced, President-elect Harding is speeding eastward to Washington today to be inaugurated tomorrow.

On this, his last day of unofficialdom, the president-elect took a holiday and gave himself completely over to his friends and relatives aboard his special train. No work was considered or attempted.

They fill two cars, aside from that occupied by the Hardings themselves, and another special train, leaving Marion today, will take many more to the capital to view the inauguration ceremonies tomorrow.

The present plans for the inauguration ceremonies call for an early start by President-elect Harding. The congressional inaugural committee will call at the new Willard hotel for the president-elect and then will drive to the White House where President Wilson will join the party. Under an escort of cavalry from Fort Meyer and secret service men the party will drive down Pennsylvania avenue to the capitol. There will be no parade and there will be less than half a dozen cars making up the party. President-elect Harding will probably go to the senate cloakrooms, where he will visit with his old colleagues. The president will go to the president's room to sign legislation awaiting his signature.

At 12 o'clock Vice President Coolidge will be sworn in. The president-elect and the president will both take seats on the senate floor while this ceremony is in progress. After the vice president is sworn in and has given the new member of the senate then the procession will start for the capitol steps where the president-elect will take the oath of office. Members of the house, the senate, supreme court, and the diplomatic corps will lead this march to the platform on the steps. If possible the president will also go to the open air exercises. The president-elect will follow at the end of the line. When he reaches the platform he will be immediately sworn in by Chief Justice White and deliver his inaugural address.

At the close of the address the president will drive back to the White House where his immediate family will join him at luncheon. Mr. Wilson will drive to his new home where he will hold a reception for his friends.

This does not mean Miss Cronin has never travelled. She has toured the New England States and visited nearly all points of interest within their boundaries, has visited Canada, made a trip to Providence, R. "The president made the announcement today that at the conclusion of his term of office he would resume the practice of law, forming a partnership with secretary of state, Bainbridge Colby.

Life of German Cabinet Hangs By Slender Thread

Former Vice Chancellor Will Call Inter-Party Meeting
To Discuss New Coalition Government—Seriousness
Of Situation Admitted By Leader.

Berlin, March 3.—The official life of the German cabinet was hanging by a slender thread today as a result of the indemnity developments at London.

"It is impossible at present to say whether Foreign Secretary Simons and the rest of the ministry will resign until the outcome of the indemnity conference is settled, but I am calling an inter-party meeting for either this afternoon or tomorrow for the purpose of taking steps to include both socialists and nationalists in a new coalition government," declared former vice-chancellor Eugene Schiffer, chairman of the inter-party committee of the reichstag. Dr. Schiffer said that plans were under way to "give the government united support in the present crisis."

Schiffer is one of the "strong men behind the scenes." It was he who piloted Germany to a diplomatic victory on the extradition question and he was the only minister who remained in Berlin and kept his post during the Kapp uprising. He is given credit for saving the Ebert government during the crisis of March 1920.

"The French threats of an invasion of Germany are most serious," continued the minister. "I am convinced that the French are not bluffing. The supreme question is whether England will subscribe to the French plans for destroying Germany. But there is a way open so long as the indemnity conference continues under way. It is small consolation but if the French march into Germany, our destruction means the destruction of the rest of Europe along with us."

He has been living in Palestine for several years and his wife and five children are there now.

NATION GIVEN UNTIL MONDAY FOR DECISION

Allies Will Invade German
Territory Unless Proposal Modified.

PLANS ARE LAID

England, France and Belgium To Participate
Drive.

London, March 3.—An allied ultimatum was served upon the Germans today that they must present more suitable proposals on indemnity before noon next Monday or allied troops will advance into Germany, it was officially announced by the French delegation to the indemnity conference this afternoon.

If the Germans fail to meet the allied indemnity demands or to tender counter proposals more satisfactory than those presented on Tuesday, the allies will put into effect the following compulsory measures:

- 1—Occupy Duisburg, Rhurport, and Dusseldorf, in the German coal and industrial belt in western Russia.
- 2—Each of the allies will put a tax on German exports.
- 3—A line of customs stations will be established by the allies along the Rhine.

When the indemnity conference opened at St. James palace at noon, Premier Lloyd George immediately gave the allies reply to the German counter proposals of Tuesday, rejecting them. It was understood that Premier Briand of France, and Court Sforza, Italian foreign minister, would follow the British premier outlining the positions taken by France and Italy.

Leaves for Paris.

M. Barthou, the French minister of war, left for Paris during the day, and it was believed that his sudden return was in connection with French military plans.

The crowds about the St. James palace stood silent as four motor cars carrying the German delegates drove up for the meeting. Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, and head of the German delegation was pale and agitated.

When Premier Lloyd George and Marshall Foch arrived the crowd broke into cheers.

The Germans were bluntly informed that the allies do not desire to waste any more time.

The Germans were accused of vexatious evasion of the peace treaty. They were told that they had not paid the money required of them that they had not supplied the coal in quantities specified by the Spa protocol and that they had not brought their war criminals to trial.

Terms Withdrawn.

"In view of the German's disregard of the Paris decision the allies have decided that the extension of time in which the Germans must pay from 30 years to 42 years, will not now operate," the French communique said.

NEW BOOK DESIGNED TO SAVE THOUSANDS IN INVENTORS RECORDS

A book designed to save thousands of dollars to manufacturers, engineers and inventors has been placed on the market by Harry Aubrey Toulmin, Jr., of Dayton. The book entitled "How To Keep Invention Records (D. Appleton & Co., New York and London) is heartily recommended to those contemplating entering the field of industrial property by James T. Newton, former United States Commissioner of Patents, who has been in that office for 40 years. Mr. Newton says:

"The prevention of litigation is the primary object of the conscientious lawyer, but in the field of industrial property, litigation cannot always be avoided. The author of this book has clearly stated the nature of industrial property and formulated a system, founded on the situation as interpreted in numerous court decisions, accurately to determine the first user of an invention, and if his instructions are followed, justice with the minimum litigation will result."

Mr. Toulmin is a graduate of Ohio State University Law School, member of the firm of Toulmin & Toulmin, patent attorneys, member of the bar of the supreme court of the United States and the bar of Ohio, and foreign member of the chartered institute of patent agents of Great Britain.

The book is an exhaustive work on the subject which the author has undertaken. It explains clearly monopolies granted by governments various kinds of patents, trade marks, copyrights, validity of patents infringements etc., and its study by every business firm would prove advantageous.

A SUITABLE TIME TO TAKE "ACCOUNT OF STOCK" OF OUR PATRIOTISM.

One of the ablest statesmen of modern times, Gladstone, said that the proper function of a government is to make it easy for the people to do good, and difficult for them to do evil; and when you come to think of the matter, and analyze the kind of government that would be your preference to live under, how could you improve on this definition?

And, as we today stand at one of the mile-stones of our blessed government, is it not a good time for us all to refresh our minds about the beautiful edifice under which we live and have our being; under which we enjoy so many wonderful blessings?

What a wonderful thing it is that takes place at Washington City on Friday of this week. Silent almost as the passing of the day itself, we pass from the administration of the policies of one party to that of another; pass away one world's greatest Ruler to give place to another to take his most exalted position; over turn in a thousand respects the personnel conditions of our governmental affairs. And yet all will be accomplished as silently and systematically and unostentatiously as if but one of our churches changing pastors.

Love of country is one of the liftiest of virtues; and at such a mile-stone as this would be a very suitable time to impress the youth with Patriotism—to call attention to the heroic struggle that gave to us our beloved country, to the end that we may not think too lightly of it, as though it had come by accident instead of heroism.

One wise man uttered this patriotic sentiment: "After what I owe to God, nothing should be more dear or more sacred than the love and respect I owe to my country."

MUTUAL DISARMAMENT WOULD SAVE ENOUGH TO OFFSET MUTUAL CANCELLATION OF WAR DEBTS.

By disarmament no one means literal disarmament, but only the limiting of armaments. Our appropriations for the army and navy for 1920 were $1,499,000,000, while as recently as 1917 they were but $598,000,000. Nearly a billion could be knocked off the appropriation without getting below the plane of 1917, which would be quite worth while. Not all the European nations could reduce at once; France could not do so before the German menace to her safety was eliminated. There is hope that this will be accomplished before long. Japan would have to be included in any agreement before we could reduce our expenditures much. However, it is supposed that these points can be adjusted; it would be worth while trying. At present all want to disarm, but no one is willing to take the first step in doing so.

As to the mutual cancellation of debts, about $10,000,000,000 is owing to us from the Allies, of which Great Britain's share is some $4,335,000,000. It is understood that she has proposed a cancellation scheme, which was rather a generous thing to do, since there is due to her from the Allies $8,655,000,000, and she would therefore be forgiving double the amount that she would be forgiven. It seems that we should be no less generous than Great Britain, for it cannot be denied that the Allies were fighting our battles nor that we failed miserably in our duty by not taking our stand with them at the beginning of the war.

The effect of an agreement to disarm mutually and forgive, supposing it possible, would be immediately beneficial in a high degree. The saving in military costs alone would make the concession a good business proposition for us. We should have to continue for a time to pay taxes to provide for the interest on bonds issued on account of the loans we made, but we should be enabled to retire those bonds rapidly. European finances would be stabilized; exchanges would become normal and work and trading be resumed.

Would it not be worth while to try to buy the consent of the nations to disarmament in this way?

THE USUAL LUCK.

In Kansas, where I lived for years, the winters were a fright; the north wind came and froze my ears when in my bed at night. The snow was always ankle deep, and filled my heart with pain, and murky heavens used to weep twelve kinds of chilling rain. And so I said, "I'll seek a clime where winter isn't known, where there is neither snow nor rime, and blizzards do not groan." And so I pitched my moving tent upon a sunny shore, where weather prophets don't lament, and groundhogs weep no more. And then the Kansas climate braced, and sprung a great reform; no blizzards o'er her prairies chased, the air was mild and warm. "The sweetest winter ever seen," my correspondents say; "the skies are blue, the grass is green, the jazzbirds sing all day." And on the seashore where I sit, the shore by long waves lashed, the old inhabitants admit that records have been smashed. "The coldest winter we have seen," these ancient men remark, "since we came o'er the billows green in Noah's costly ark." And should I back to Kansas go, where all the prospects please, the clouds would dump six feet of snow and I would promptly freeze. Alas, this is the sort of thing that always has been mine, and yet I'm happy as a king, so many things are fine.

THE SENATE REMAINED FAITHFUL, CARRYING OUT WILSON'S POLICIES TO THE VERY LAST.

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

The large ice consumers of the city held a meeting last night at Fisher's butcher shop and talked over the question of buying ice from dealers outside the city rather than accede to the demands of the local dealers in paying the increase in the price.

HUNGARY'S CABINET NAER COLLAPSE IS BEIELF EXPRESSED

London, March 3.—The Hungarian cabinet is threatened with collapse in consequence of the strikes which have spread throughout Hungary, accompanied by unrest and disorders, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Budapest today. The Hungarian government is arresting strike leaders and agitators. Budapest is without newspapers.

MARINE IS HAPPY WITH GERMAN BRIDE

Chicago, March 3.—If the Marines want anything they usually get it. Hindenburg's warriors learned at Chateau-Thierry. And the state department has learned the same thing. Former First Lieutenant James Frank Smith, of the Second Division, A. E. F., is back in Chicago and with him his German bride of a few days, formerly Miss Erna Rosa Forstmayr. They were married February 9 in New York after Smith had induced Major-General John A. LeJeune to intercede with Secretary Colby to the extent of having the State Department permit Miss Forstmayr to come to America to be married.

When Jimmy Smith, with his Sixth Regiment of Marines, left the banks of the Rhine for the States in July, 1919, Erna slipped a small gold mesh bracelet on his left wrist. "If you love me, James, this bracelet will never become loose from your wrist. Goodbye and good luck," she said.

After the wedding ceremony Lieutenant Smith held out his left wrist to his bride and she solemnly unclasped the bracelet and they kissed as a token of their sincerity.

Smith went over to France and later to the bridgeheads of the Rhine in Germany as a sergeant. He was decorated with the French fourragere and given a single silver bar on his shoulders.

He was soon made a field supply officer and had charge of one of the vessels on the Rhine. In this work he met Miss Forstmayr. It was a case of love at first sight for them both. Because of the order against fraternizing with German girls Smith was forbidden to marry her and take her back to the states.

Disheartened Smith left Germany. He told her he would return for her. This she refused because of "the expense of the trip," she explained.

Meantime, Smith implored his commanding officer, Major General LeJeune, to intercede with the State Department. LeJeune talked it over with Bainbridge Colby. Colby finally acceded to the request to permit Smith's sweetheart to leave Germany, even though we were technically "at war with Germany." Miss Forstmayr set sail aboard the Lapland from Antwerp.

A traveler's aid representative met Miss Forstmayr at the pier and took her to Smith, then to the church.

ADVISE TAXPAYERS NOT TO DELAY INCOME RETURNS

The following statement is issued by the internal revenue office:

"With the approach of March 15, taxpayers are advised not to delay in the preparation and filing of their income tax returns for the year 1920. To avoid penalties, the returns must be in the hands of a collector or a deputy collector of internal revenue on or before midnight of that date.

On page 1 of the income tax forms is the following: If you need assistance go to a deputy collector or to the collector's office, but first read instructions and fill out sheet (face and back) in pencil as well as you can! Much time can be saved both the government officers and the taxpayers if before seeking aid, the taxpayer will follow this injunction. For example blank spaces are provided for answers to the following questions: "Are you a citizen of the United States?" "If not are you a resident of the United States?" "Did you file a return for 1919?" "If so what address was given on that return?" "Were you married and living with wife and husband on the last day of your taxable period?" "How many dependent persons under 18 (or if over 18) incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective) were receiving their chief support from you on the last day of your taxable period?"

Such questions as these should not await inquiry from revenue officers assisting in making out the forms. Returns are required of every married couple whose net income and that of dependent children for the year was $2,000.00 or more and from every single person or married person not living with wife or husband—whose net income was $1,000 or more.

The exemptions are $2,000 for married persons and heads of families and $1,000 for single persons,—or married persons not living with wife or husband—and are determined by the taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year, December 31, 1920. Husband and wife may make a combined return of their joint net income if less than $5,000. If the income of either exceeded $5,000, separate returns should be filed for the purpose of computing correctly the surtax which applies only to income in excess of that amount.

The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, September 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15. Taxpayers are advised not to send cash through the mail.

FIRST CRABBE ACT CASE DISMISSED IN COMMON PLEAS COURT

Dayton, O., March 3.—Holding that sufficient evidence was not introduced in a magistrate's court when dry officials obtained a search warrant to enter the farm of Henry Weng, where stills and mash were found, Judge R. C. Patterson, common pleas court, dismissed the case. This was the first such case in common pleas court. The judge said he based his findings on U. S. Judge Sater's decision or search warrants. He held too, that the original affidavit must be obtained in common pleas court.

Mrs. H. A. Leaman, Sturgis, Colo., writes: "I suffered with bladder and kidney trouble for years. Doctored and tried everything. No help. Finally a friend sent me Foley's Kidney Pills. They helped me so much I used 7 bottles. Now I feel fine. Spent sleepless nights. Suffered so it seemed I hardly could live. Recommended Foley's Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble as I did." Sayre & Hemphill.

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day'. If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTEN, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world.

Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

"LAST OF THE MOHICANS"
"Never has such a picture been booked at the Bijou Theater. was the verdict of Manager Hibbert, of that popular house after he had seen Maurice Tournier's pictureurisation of "The Last of the Mohicans," by J. Fenimore Cooper, which starts here Friday.

"There is everything for everybody," he continues "and not a member of the family can miss it, because it pleases the old folks by bringing happy remembrances of other days for the middle aged—the fathers and mothers of today—the appeal is strong because of the personal entertainment element with the value of the picture solely as an amusement. These parents have another interest, that of educating their children, for Cooper's famous book is used in school work, and by seeing the film, the youngsters are doubly impressed, and their interest in literature is stimulated.

"Then for the boys and girls! What kid has not 'played Indian' and enjoyed it? Not a one, indeed. Therefore every lad and lassie of Greene county will have the very time of their lives at the Bijou when this big historical picture is shown.

"Every American in whose veins flows the blood of our forefathers, wants to see this thrilling picture.—Adv.

CENTRAL HI COURT CROWD CONFIDENT ON EVE OF TOURNEY

Cochran Harold Confer, and "his Central High quintet, full of pep and confidence, left for Delaware, Thursday afternoon at 3:13 o'clock to participate in the Southern Division round of the annual state interscholastic basketball tournament at Ohio Wesleyan University.

"If they keep their heads and don't get excited they will give a good account of themselves in the tournament," said Coach Confer before the team left. "I will try to keep them as cool as possible in order to have them play their best. The excitement and tenseness of play in the tournament often has a tendency to ruin the chances of good teams, and is what has been the trouble with a number of good teams that were sent to the tournament from Central High."

The blue and white team is rated well in Southern Division circles and is looked upon by sport writers as being rated with Steele, Stivers, Athens and Lancaster High School teams, as the pick of the Southern Division teams. The fact that the Central High team is the pick of the state, is proven by the conditions that have for four straight years given the state championship to Dayton, three times to Stivers, and once to Steele.

A large crowd of rooters accompanied the team to cheer the players on in the games that start Friday.

COUNTY STAR TEAM READY FOR AFFRAY

County basketball stars who have been picked by Coach Harold Confer of Central High School on his all star basketball team to meet Chic Harley's team at the Fink Friday evening have been practicing nightly.

The athletes gather here from Cedarville, Yellow Springs, Alpha and from this city, where they have been drawn because of considerable court ability and in continued practice sessions have developed a team work like veterans. The game is attracting considerable attention from the fans.

METEORS EVEN COUNTY WITH ST. JOSEPHS TEAM

Obtaining retribution for a defeat handed them by St. Joseph's High School team of Springfield a short time ago, St. Joseph's Meteors defeated the Springfield visitors at the Rink Wednesday night 12-7.

The game was closely played, with sides off on their basket shooting, but striving desperately through all stages of the pastime. There was as little scoring evidenced in the pastime as probably any game played on the local court.

FOOTBALL BUGS START PRACTICE

Cedarville, March 3.—Tuesday, March 1, the football bugs of the College had a strenuous workout, for about two hours, passing, kicking the pigskin. McFadden, White, Arthur, Thorn, Collis, J. Kyle, Findlay and Duncan and several other lads showed up fairly well in the handling of the leather. Several more practices will be held this spring in order to get a line on material for next fall.

John, Harry and Miss Marjorie Wright have been out of school all week, as they have been at Idaville, Ind., attending the funeral of their grandfather Wright.

The basketball season is almost finished but Coach Collins is not letting up on practice to any extent, as every effort is being made to bring victory to Cedarville in our last two games. On Friday, March 4, a new lineup will appear against Bowling Green. Riddell, the Xenia lad, has shown up so well that he can not be kept on the bench. The Waynesville girls will be here for sure to tackle our peerless sextet the same evening.

With the baseball season fast approaching, Manager Paul Duncan is announcing that he has games scheduled with Wilmington, Antioch, Wilberforce and the Alumni. Prospects for a good team are shattered somewhat by the high standards of

Secretary P. J. Slackford of the Chamber of Commerce, Attorney C. L. Darlington, who is representing that organization, City Manager Kenyon Riddle and City Solicitor J. A. Finney will go to Columbus Friday to be present at the hearing of the protest filed by the Chamber of Commerce against the rate increase put in effect here last November by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company which will be heard before the state Utilities Commission at ten o'clock Friday morning.

Secretary Slackford and Mr. Darlington go as representatives of the Chamber of Commerce which is carrying on and financing the fight against the rate increase while City Manager Riddle and Mr. Finney are representing the city, the administration being considerably interested in the outcome of the hearing, although carrying on the fight against it.

The rate increase that brought the situation before the State Utilities Commission was the third in a period of 13 months put in effect by the Company, and became effective last November 1. The first of the three increases was made October 1, 1919, the second May 1, 1920 and the third in November of the same year.

In October 1919, the Company put into effect an increase allowed by the State Utilities Commission, raising one party business phones to $3.50 a month, two party business phones to $2.25, two party residence phones to $1.75 and trunks to $4.00. In May 1920, the rates were increased as follows: one party business phones $4.50, two party business phones $4, one party residence phones $2.50, two party residence phones $2 and trunks to $6. The last rate, put into effect last November, makes the rates as follows: one party business phones $5, two party business phones grades required by those who participate in athletics. However, our wealth of new material has brought in some first-class pill tossers who are expected to fill up the gaps.

$4.25 one party residence phones $2.75, two party residence phones $2.25 and trunk lines $7.50.

When the increase was announced last fall, the Chamber of Commerce immediately filed a protest with the State Utilities Commission, and retained Attorney C. L. Darlington, a member of its board of directors, as legal advisor of the organization and to represent the Chamber in the hearing. The Commission set the hearing for November 30, but later postponed it three times, until finally the date of March 4 was agreed upon.

At the time of the filing of the protest the State Utilities Commission required the telephone Company to post a bond of $5,500. As the hearing was to be held November 30, after one month's collections at the new rate had been made, this bond was to secure for patrons of the Company, the refund of any excess charges made, should the Commission decide that the increase in rates in part of it was too high. This bond, it is understood, was never raised, but if the Commission finds the rates excessive, it is understood that the Company will be required to credit every subscriber with the amount he has paid in excess in the meantime.

BRUNSWICK Method of Reproduction

The Ultona, an exclusive all-record reproducer, to be obtained only on The Brunswick. It plays all makes of records at their best. Not an attachment, but a built-in part.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier, made entirely of mounded wood, like a fine violin. Gives added richness and fullness to tone. Does away with metallic sounds.

Two exclusive features You can't buy elsewhere

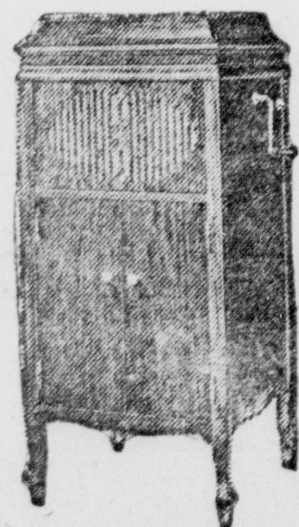

THE reason so many critical music lovers prefer The Brunswick is not hard to find. It is all due to the Brunswick Method of Reproduction, two features of which are pictured above.

Tone is the chief reason for so many friends for Brunswick. And tone depends largely upon the reproducer and the tone amplifier.

In both of these features Brunswick has gone far in advance. The Ultona plays all records, not confining you to one make. And it plays each exactly as intended, with the proper diaphragm, the proper needle. Best of all, it is not a hastily contrived makeshift, but a basic invention.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is built entirely of wood. Not merely the part you see, but the throat between the reproducer and amplifier. The usual way is to make this throat of cast metal, a faulty way that brings metallic sounds.

You'll appreciate how far in advance The Brunswick is; you'll admire its superior tone. The proof of the pudding is—Hearing. All we ask you to do is to investigate The Brunswick with your own ears.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "3½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister. Mustard does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin. Gently massage Mustard into the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears. Use Mustard for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

COMPLETE HEARING OF INJUNCTION CASES; DECISION LATER

With the completion of the case of Osha May Shaw, against County Auditor R. O. Wead and County Treasurer J. E. Sutton, enjoining the collection of special assessments levied by the city for street improvements, the hearing of which began before Judge Cleveland of Wilmington, in Common Pleas Court Thursday morning, the entire list of injunction cases against the city will be completed.

Wednesday Judge Cleveland heard the cases in which Francis A. Cline and Bernard Cline, Rugman and others, Annie Powers, William Fiste and Anna L. Little. The case started Thursday morning, when completed will wind up all of the cases, which were begun before Judge Cleveland two weeks ago. In all there were 23 cases.

Judge Cleveland is taking all of the cases under advisement and his decision will be announced later.

The Peoples' Building and Savings Company is plaintiff in an action filed by its attorney, C. W. Whitmer, with Clerk of Courts C. S. Johnson, against J. E. Hering, Daisy M. Hering and the Middle West Tire House Company.

The petition claims that the defendant borrowed $5,000 from the institution, giving a promissory note at six per cent interest secured by a mortgage on certain property located on West Main street. The plaintiff asks for a judgment of $5,000 with interest of six per cent, which until January 1, 1921, would have been $5,211.80. The Middle West Tire House Company is named as defendant, because the petition says it is claimed that that company holds a lien on the West Main street property.

The case of the State of Ohio ex rel Mary L. Sessler, against Keith Moon, charging bastardy, was entered in Common Pleas Court yesterday, from the court of Magistrate J. E. Jones, from which court the defendant was bound over to the Grand Jury.

Morris D. Rice as guardian of Florence Frann, an imbecile, filed an application for the property with Judge J. Carl Marshall in Probate Court yesterday, and furnished an additional bond of $6,000. His sale of the property to the Boomer Pieper Company for $3,500 was approved by the court.

INFANT SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA

Phyllis Jane Mitchell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell of Clifton, died at the parents home Wednesday evening, following an illness of two weeks of pneumonia. The child was one year and nine months old. Besides the parents, two sisters and one brother survive. Funeral services will be held Friday at one o'clock at the M. E. Church at Clifton and burial will be made at Clifton cemetery.

DOCTORS DIDN'T HELP HER SICKLY CHILD

Strong and healthy now. Mother says Milks Emulsion saved its life.

"Last May my three-year-old baby was taken very ill, got so bad that we expected her to die at any time. Had four doctors but they did not know what ailed her and finally stopped coming. She had been sick about 6 months when I started giving her Milks Emulsion. I noticed results from the first and by the time she had taken 2 bottles she was absolutely strong and healthy. I am thankful to say Milks Emulsion saved her life."

Mrs. Willis S. Pitts, Nacogdoches, Texas. For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milks Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it, because unlike many emulsions and tonics, it really tastes good.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

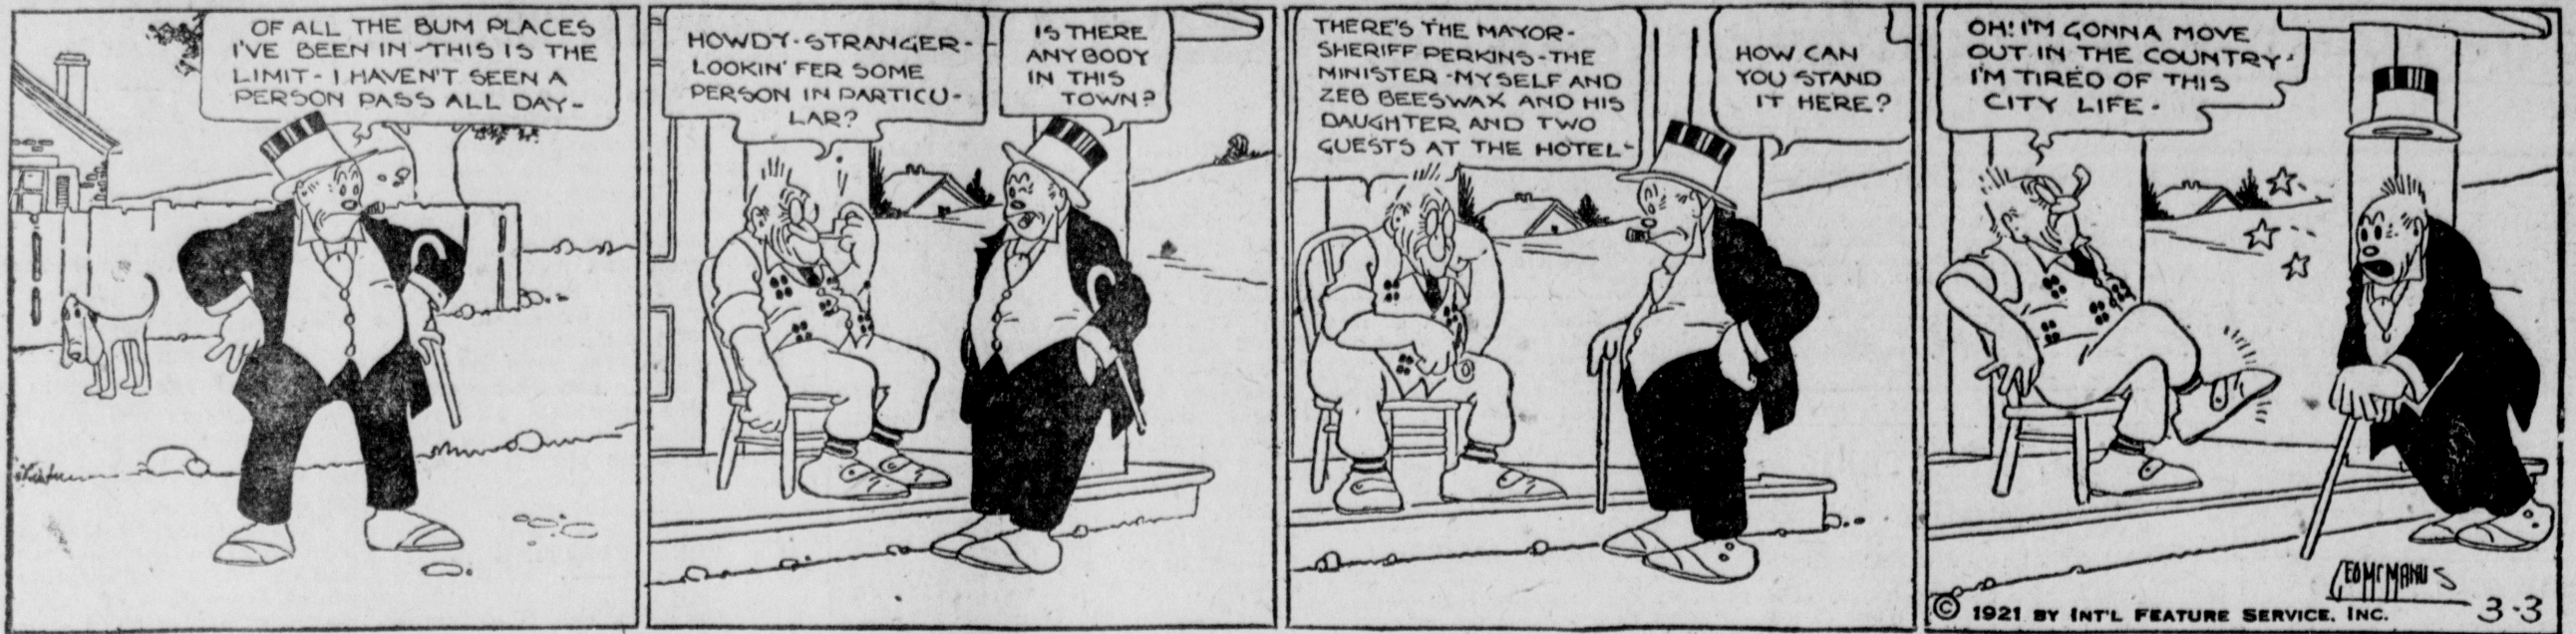

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that of two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless. Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed Sayre & Hemphill to guarantee it in every instance.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

NAN PLANS A TRIP

Chapter 105

I had contracted for the decorating of another large house, this time a new one. It was an extremely remunerative job. I had at first refused it, not because of lack of time but because of my depressed condition, my unhappiness in the discovery of Dick's infatuation for Juanita. But when they entreated me to do the work, naming my own price, I consented.

I should make enough to finish my own house and if Dick would consent, put into effect a little plan of which I had been thinking. After I finished this work he and I would go to Los Angeles, surprise Junior, then take a trip to San Francisco. His book would be in the publisher's hands then and the rest and change would do us both good. It would also separate him from Juanita in a perfectly natural way, I reasoned.

When I told Dick I had decided to take the house after all, he only remarked:

"Don't try to do too much, Nan" it was what he always said.

"I won't," I replied as usual.

Perhaps Dick's seeming indifference to my work even when it really had amounted to something, had hurt me almost as much as any thing he could have done except ceasing to love me. At Lansing he had been so interested, asked so many questions, been so solicitous, that his stereotyped questions, his cold indifference now hurt doubly in comparison.

I attributed all of this to Juanita's influence. He was so interested in her that he had no interest in me or anything I did, I thought with bitterness.

The book was finished that week. All those last days Juanita was closeted with him from morning until night, while I attended to my work, most of which had to be done away from home. I was always there at meal time, however, and invariably was obliged to call them to their meals, even after the maid we now kept (and could afford), had announced they were ready.

"They never know whether I am in the house or not," I said to myself after Dick had made some remark which showed an utter failure to remember I had told him I was doing Mr. Baker's new house. And Juanita seemed to forget my very existence, save occasionally when at lunch she would remember I was alive and say:

"You must excuse us, Nan, but we are so interested in our book we can think of nothing else."

How that "us" and "we" and "our" hurt me! But I comforted myself with the thought—the book is almost finished, she will have no excuse to be here then. So I smiled and told them not to mind me, while inwardly I knew that I longed to be minded very much indeed.

Saturday afternoon they went to the postoffice together and sent the manuscript to a prominent New York publisher. I met them as I was going home from a hard afternoon's work. They were laughing and chatting unrestrainedly until I joined them. They had not seen me, until I was almost abreast of them.

Immediately they became quiet, at least Dick did.

"I heard you laughing," I said. "I expect you both feel immensely relieved now that the manuscript is out of the way."

"It may come right back," Dick grumbled.

"Don't even think that after all your work. We won't take it back!" I said lightly.

"Will you come in?" Dick asked Juanita as we neared the house.

"No, I think not." If she was waiting for me to say anything she surely must have been disappointed. I would begin at once to hold myself aloof.

"Then I'll walk home with you. The walk will do me good. I'll be back by the time dinner is ready. Nan."

I went into the house perfectly discouraged. I had hoped for so much when the book was finished. It was finished. But it looked as if there was to be no change in the intimacy it had fostered to such a dangerous degree.

I would sound Dick as to my plan when he returned. I waited until we were drinking our coffee before I unfolded it to him.

"You see, Dick, you have been working terribly hard on your book. This job will give us enough money and we both need a change." Then as he did not answer, I added:

"And just think how pleased Junior would be to see us."

"I don't know about going away then, Nan. If Bowman takes my book I may want to take a trip. I have been thinking of for some time. Somers"—A man whom we knew but slightly, but a great friend of Juanita's—"has asked me to go on a yachting trip with him. I haven't given him any answer as yet, but—well, I'll think about it. There's no hurry—you can't go for a month yet anyway I believe you said."

"No, it will take a month longer for me to finish up with the Baker's," I spoke coldly. I had been puzzled, then hurt by the hesitating way in which Dick had received my suggestion for a vacation together and the calm way in which he had left me out of his own plans. But he did not appear to notice, and we spent the evening reading—he a late magazine, I a book upon interior decoration.

Not once did he again mention his book, neither did we talk of anything of interest to us both. We were together, yet as far apart as the poles.
